

DRM NEWS OF THE DAY: September 20, 2018

Bonjour, Hulth Qua Kwayel (Pronounced: Hawk Skwyle), Sat Sri Akal, Guten Morgan, Buenos Dias, Good Morning

Today our block rotation is 6 5 8 7 and its grade 7/8 day in the gym. Remember to be safe, kind and respectful.

Please welcome to our school today Ms. Lessman.

- This Friday, the Leadership class will be hosting the annual Terry Fox Run rain or shine! Come dressed for the weather. Donations for cancer research are being accepted at the table set up in the MPR today at lunch. Which grade can raise the most money? So far, the grade 7s are STILL leading and overall we've raised a grand total of $242! If everyone- including staff- brings $1 we can reach our fundraising goal of $700! Please come and visit our Terry Fox fundraising table in the MPR during lunch to donate.
- Grade 8 Girls' Volleyball – next practice is next Wednesday, September 26, 2018.
- Interested in bouldering with the Cave Dwellers this year? Come see Mme Lhotak in room 248 for a parent permission form. No form, no climbing! This year, we will meet every Wednesday from 3:00 till 4:30. See you there!
- Attention cross country runners. We will be using the Terry Fox run that is happening on Friday school wide in block 2 as our training for the day. Please come to the block 2 run in proper running gear, and plan to run hard!
- Gr. 9 girls volleyball today afterschool from 3 – 4:15
- Are you looking for some great volunteer experience for your resume and want to have fun with kids at the same time?
Big Brothers Big Sisters, Sea to Sky is seeking Teen Mentors!
As a Teen Mentor, you'll spend one hour each week with a boy or girl at Brackendale Elementary School every Friday 2:00-3:00pm from October till May.
If you have any questions, please contact Karen Tapp who will be in the MPR at Lunch on Friday Sept 21- right after the Terry Fox Run.
